

What's New in Salem Downtown Parking?

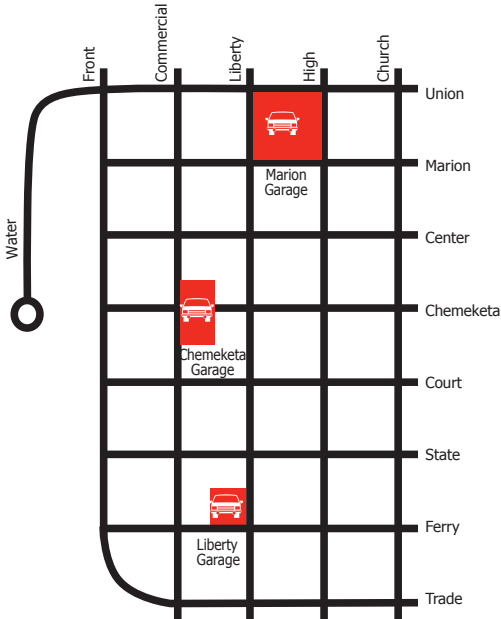

A two-hour time limit is being introduced for on-street parking throughout the downtown.

The reason for the change is to ensure there will be enough spaces for customers – even during the mid-day peak.

The new two-hour time limit takes effect on February 1, 2007.

Parking enforcement will be 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. On Saturday, time limits will be enforced in the downtown core where parking congestion is greatest (see map on back side to find the Saturday enforcement area).

Want to Stay Longer?

Customers are invited to shop longer than two hours and park for free – even all day! Customers and visitors who plan to stay longer can choose from 1,200 free spaces in the public parking garages (see map).
